EXECUTORS' SALE HAT MAGNIFICENT AND VERT VALUABLE SUBURBAN FARM ON THE HERMITAGE ROAD KNOWN AS "ROSEWOOD," OR

Young's Pond Property

FOR A LONG TIME OCCUPIED BY THE LATE MRS. ROSINA U. MOR-DECAL Acting under the provisions of the will of the late Mrs. Rosina U, Mordecal, we will offer for sale, by public auction, on the premises, on saturnary, June 12, 1909, at 5 P. M., that valuable and attractive property above referred to, containing 262.5 acres of land, together with a plain but comfortable dwelling and other improvements, including an attractive three-room cottage.

Among other notable features, not to speak of its accessibility to the city by a trolley line and trains of the R. F. & P. Raliroad, are a beautiful and extensive grove of stately cake crowning a situation unexcelled for natural beauty, and a lake, known as "Young's Pond," lying in full view of the dwelling. The greater portion of this tract of land is in wood and iffiber, which, on account of its nearness to the city, can be sold for a large sum of money. There are also indications of the presence of large deposits of granite on the property.

The neighborhood is of the very best, being in close proximity to the handsome estate of the late Major Ginter, known as "Westbrook," and the elegant residences of Edmund Strudwick, Esq., Mrs. Byrd Warwick, H. T. Meloney and others; and it can be safely said that, taken as a whole, this place has liardly an equal around the city of Richmond.

Right is reserved to offer the land, first, in subdivisions, and then as a whole, and the offering producing the better result will be the only one considered by us. A plan of the proposed subdivision can be seen at the office of the halance at one and two years for notes, with interest payable semi-annually secured by seed of trust; or all cash, we will be exhibited at the sale.

TERMS: One-third cash, as balance at one and two years for notes, with interest payable semi-annually, secured by a deed of trust; or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.
